

Instructional Resources for CCSD Parents and Families

Accessing the Nevada Academic Content Standards

http://www.doe.nv.gov/Standards_Instructional_Support/Nevada_Academic_Content_Standards/

This link provides access to the Nevada Academic Content Standards in all subjects. These standards are the foundation for curriculum design, instructional practice, and assessments used in all school districts in Nevada, including CCSD.

Parent and Family Resources

Homework Hotline (702-799-5111)

<http://www.vegaspbs.org/homework-hotline/>

The Homework Hotline allows students to receive help over the phone from student tutors Monday-Thursday between the hours of 3:30-5:30 P.M. Their website also provides information on additional tutoring resources for students.

CCSD Family and Community Engagement Services

<http://faces.ccsd.net>

The CCSD Family and Community Engagement Services Department (FACES) provides resources and training designed to ensure that families and communities are partners in the success of students. This website contains links and information designed to help parents and families navigate CCSD and get the tools and training they need to help their children succeed in school.

Southern Nevada Regional Professional Development Program (RPDP)

<http://rpd.net>

The Southern Nevada RPDP website contains information and resources for content taught in grades K-12. The website contains a section that provides helpful links for parents and families on ways they can help students at home.

Khan Academy

<https://www.khanacademy.org>

Khan Academy offers free resources for students and parents in a variety of subjects. This website provides a large library of videos and practice exercises designed to help students master concepts.