

MEET THE TEACHER

WELCOME!

As a resource teacher, I love meeting students where they are and helping them discover what makes them shine. In special education, we say, “The goal is to work yourself out of a job” — and that’s exactly what I strive for: giving every student the support, tools, and confidence to soar on their own!

MORE ABOUT ME

Boy mom to amazing humans, girl mom to spoiled pups, and a California native turned Nevada educator. I’m a proud CSUF & UNLV alumna, and a fresh grad student at UNR (Go Pack!). You can usually find me taking sunshine walks, listening to podcasts, and soaking up life’s little joys — all while staying true to my signature look as a ponytail loyalist.

Ms. Carlson

MY FAVORITES

- Classroom Love Language: drawings from tiny humans
- Color Palette: earthy neutrals with bold pops of fuschia, purple and teal
- Comfort Rewatch: Friends
- Soundtrack: Prince, 90s R&B & Freestyle

CONTACT ME:

Lakebk@nv.ccsd.net

