ABOUT ME

I'm excited to begin my fourth year teaching 1st grade at Glen Taylor! I've had the opportunity to teach students from kindergarten through middle school, and I'm currently completing a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership. Outside of the classroom, I love spending time with my husband and our two boys—Ethan, who's starting middle school, and Landon, who's beginning high school. We enjoy traveling to our home state of California to visit family and spend time at the beach.
